Student Achievement, Parent Support, & Professional Services Options for 2024

SERVING THE CHILDREN OF THOSE WHO SERVE US ALL

Who Are We?

MCEC is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization that solely exists to help the military-connected child thrive in the face of transition and separation.

Our Mission

MCEC supports all military-connected children by educating, advocating, and collaborating to resolve education challenges associated with the military lifestyle.

Our Vision

Every military-connected child is college-, work-, and life-ready.

Our Community

MCEC is a professional coalition with a diverse community consisting of public school districts, private schools, colleges, universities, small businesses and corporations, nonprofit organizations, military commands and installations, military families, and caring individuals from local communities across our Nation.

Our Work

The Military Child Education Coalition[®] (MCEC[®]) delivers programs, services, and professional development to meet the needs of military-connected students, parents, and professionals.

Our Programs

Student Achievement

MCEC believes that enabling students to thrive and succeed in our education system by providing them the tools necessary to become college-, work-, and life-ready is of the highest importance. Student 2 Student[®] programs at the elementary, middle, and high school levels bring military and civilian children together to welcome new students, support academic excellence, and ease transitions as students pass in or out of schools.

Parent Support

MCEC empowers parents to become informed, proactive supporters allowing them to make a positive impact in the needs of their children. Parent Educators provide informative and interactive parent workshops to groups and organizations in the local community that address academic, social, and emotional issues associated with a military family lifestyle.

Professional Services

MCEC values the importance of professionals possessing the knowledge necessary to identify and respond to complex needs of military-connected children. Across disciplines, such as education, healthcare, childcare, and business, MCEC trains professionals to address the unique challenges facing our military-connected children. All training is grounded in research and presented by highly-skilled instructors.

MCEC[®]

PURPLE STAR SCHOOLS (PSS)

The Military Child Education Coalition[®] (MCEC[®]) is the National Advocate for the Purple Star School Initiative.

What is the Purple Star School Program?

The Purple Star School program is designed to prepare schools to better understand and respond to the educational and social-emotional challenges military-connected children face during their transition to a new school and keep them on track to be college, workforce, and life-ready.

What is MCEC's role as National Advocate?

MCEC helps schools and districts understand the value of and the requirements to become a Purple Star School. We offer support by providing:

- 1) Training and support for peer-to-peer student-led programs that promote 100% acceptance
- 2) Professional development for educators through training, webinars, and podcasts on military student transition challenges
- 3) Resources for creating a military-friendly school website
- 4) Ongoing resources to the designated campus POC supporting military students and families

Why should my school become a Purple Star School?

The designation reflects a school or district's intention to better understand and support military families through any educational challenge.

Where are Purple Star Schools?

As of September 9, 2024, 42 states have PSS designation programs, covering more than 790 districts and 3,800 schools, from elementary to high school. Five additional states have proposed legislation.

For up-to-date facts and figures on PSS by state, visit

MilitaryChild.org/purplestarschools

What does my school or district need to do to achieve the Purple Star School designation?

Each state has its own designation granting body. Contact your state's Department of Education to determine Purple Star Program status.

100% Acceptance

Student 2 Student[®] (S2S) is a peer-to-peer student-led program that brings military and civilian students together to welcome new students, creates a positive environment for all, supports educational opportunities, builds connections through service, and eases transitions.

Students make a positive impact on their school and community using the S2S six core values: Leadership, Academics, Service, Climate and Culture, Relationships, and 100% Acceptance.

Programs are for all three school levels: high school, middle/junior high school, and elementary school

S2S teams:

- Provide every new student with a school tour and welcome packet
- Eat lunch with new students and check in during first two weeks
- Host social events and S2S meetings to build relationships
- Actively engage in school and community service projects
- Seek guidance from S2S sponsor when assisting peers
- Create an inviting and supportive environment for ALL students

FRANCES HESSELBEIN STUDENT LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

FALL SEMESTER

United States Military Academy |
West Point, New York

During the fall semester, the students learn leadership skills from West Point faculty, distinguished guest lecturers, and hands-on activities. These experiences are the same as those our future military leaders learn prior to starting their careers as officers. The evening activities include building lifelong connections with their teammates, sharing their own S2S programs, and goal setting with their new teammates.

SPRING SEMESTER

United States Air Force Academy |
Colorado Springs, Colorado

A team of senior cadets, majoring in Behavioral Science and Leadership, build the annual Frances Hesselbein program starting the fall of their senior year. The week's learning is structured around the core leadership principles taught to the cadets. The students are taught by the cadets and are provided experiences that build on the leadership principles. The week ends with a goal setting session for students to take back to their campus and implement.

The mission of the Frances Hesselbein Student Leadership Program[™] is to grow and sustain the Student 2 Student[®] (S2S) program on the local campus. Established by MCEC in 2006, the Frances Hesselbein Student Leadership Program offers an intensive experience for selected students to enrich their leadership and team building skills.

The week-long experience builds skills through personal and small group settings. Students gain confidence, competence, and commitment to their leadership to strengthen their local S2S program.

Students also have an opportunity to share their program challenges and successes with other peers to gain a new insight on improvement. Distinguished guests provide insights to overcoming challenges and to building personal character.

This is a scholarship-based program. The only expenses to the student are luggage fees, meals while traveling, and souvenirs.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Active in S2S
- Demonstrate competency in the core values of S2S
- Sophomore or junior student
- Complete the application requirements
- Good academic standing
- Sponsor recommendation

Who is Frances Hesselbein?

Frances Hesselbein (November 1, 1915 – December 11, 2022) was a trailblazer, author, editor, and gifted leader. She was the president and CEO of the Frances Hesselbein Leadership Institute. Prior to founding the Frances Hesselbein Leadership Institute, she served as the CEO for the Girl Scouts of the USA. Between 1965 and 1976, she rose from volunteer troop leader to CEO and held the position of CEO for fourteen years (1976-1990). She is credited with leading a turnaround for the Girl Scouts, increasing their minority membership and establishing the Daisy Scout program for the youngest girls accepted into the Girl Scouts. In 1998, Hesselbein was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom for her work with the Girl Scouts of the USA, and was the recipient of 22 honorary degrees.

"This training will help me improve my leadership skills, by allowing me to become more resilient and responsible for my actions and giving me the ability to better communicate and strengthen my connections."

THE MILITARY CHILD Well-being TOOLKIT

Social Emotional Learning

Social Emotional Learning (SEL) is the process through which children and adults acquire emotional intelligence.

Categories of SEL:

- Self-Awareness
- Self-Management
- Social Awareness
- Social Skills
- Responsible Decision-Making

The emotional, social, and mental health of military students plays a crucial role in their academic success.

The MCEC Military Child Well-Being Toolkit was created to provide accessible social-emotional supports and resources directly to parents, educators, and other youth-serving professionals working with military-connected youth.

The toolkit provides evidence-based content to foster the emotional intelligence (EI), mindfulness, and overall well-being of military children. It also aims to support students of military families living with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), traumatic brain injury (TBI), and other injuries. Additional topics include suicide prevention and awareness, diversity, equity, inclusion, social justice, and LGBTQIA+. The MCEC Military Child Well-being Toolkit delivers a multitude of strategies and tools for parents, professionals, and schools for 13 topics relating to overall student well-being.

MCEC supports all military-connected students, and we provide resources to create a caring community that will enable them to be college-, work-, and life-ready.

TELL ME A Story

Making Connections and Finding Support through Literature

Tell Me A Story[®] (TMAS[®]) is a family literacy event geared toward children ages 4-12. The mission of the program is to empower military-connected children by using literature and their own stories in a way that fosters resilience, strong peer and parent connections, and a sense of pride and accomplishment.

Through TMAS, children and parents are able to recognize that they are an active part of caring communities — not just recipients of this care, but also participants in caring for others. TMAS can help give children the tools needed to be resilient and have a positive optimistic outlook. The program encourages parents to help their children become strong readers. Children who read well do better in school — it is “the critical skill.”

Each TMAS event focuses on one book, carefully selected by MCEC for its content, literary value, and illustrations. TMAS books also exhibit 23 character traits of positive, optimistic people. Research shows that these traits can be developed and contribute to people becoming more resilient as well as living healthier, happier, and longer lives. All TMAS books touch on two main themes of positive psychology: resilience and optimism. Some of the books directly address certain military-related issues, such as deployment. The chosen books are developmentally appropriate for 4-12 year-olds and are respectful of the diversity of families and experiences.

Since its inception in 2005,
TMAS has impacted nearly

65,000

military-connected kids and parents through more than 700 events.

MILITARY STUDENT CONSULTANT

As a premier resource that addresses challenges associated with the military lifestyle, an MCEC Military Student Consultant is a trusted professional resource during times of transition and throughout the deployment cycle, providing individualized support services for parents, educators, and administrators.

An MSC personally responds to every phone call or submission on our MCEC website at MilitaryChild.org/contact.

"I would not have been able to navigate the tangled mess of information without your assistance."

Response from MSC survey

MSCs advocate for and provide support to students and parents who experience academic or social-emotional challenges and need direct problem-solving support resources. Critical areas MSCs routinely respond to include:

- TRANSITION SUPPORT: Academic, developmental, and/or social-emotional
- RELOCATIONS: PCS, deployments, retirements, and/or families who are leaving the service.
- ACADEMICS: Credit transfers or transcript evaluations
- READINESS: Academic (school, colleges, and universities), career, work, and/or overall life readiness
- EXCEPTIONAL FAMILIES: Support with EFMP, IEP, and/or 504

MSCs are highly specialized education professionals who provide personalized concierge support directly to students, parents, or professionals who serve military-connected (Active-Duty, National Guard, Reserve, ROTC cadre, recruiter, and veteran) families, no matter where they are located in the world.

Through partnerships and collaboration with installation school liaison officers, EFMP coordinators, state-level Department of Education student services, Military Interstate Children's Compact Commissioners (MIC3), and other MCEC programs, MSCs provide wrap-around individualized transition and relocation support services to assist military-connected students, families, and professionals with real-world transitional barriers associated with the military lifestyle.

360 SUMMITS

"I learned that leadership is developed from within yourself. To succeed you must seek out successful people and sustain discipline and motivation to keep the success train rolling."

- S2S student, 360 Summit
Columbia, SC

What can an MCEC 360 Summit do for your community?

The Military Child Education Coalition can lead a community-wide, multi-faceted event to help schools respond to the educational and social-emotional challenges of a military lifestyle.

Bringing insight and understanding of the unique challenges military-connected students face, the MCEC 360 Summit provides opportunities for cross-sector collaboration, idea sharing, tools, and programming support. The Summit includes training for students, parents, educators, and other youth-serving professionals; student enrichment; and opportunities for your community to help support military families.

MCEC 360 Summits introduce schools, districts, and communities to the benefits of Purple Star Readiness – and how to apply for or sustain this worthwhile designation. Criteria are tailored state-by-state to identify and nurture schools to be truly "military friendly."

Components of your Summit can include:

AUDIENCE	DESCRIPTION
For Professionals	Professional development to assist educators, school administrators, and other youth-serving professionals to address the unique challenges facing military-connected children.
For Students	Our peer-to-peer mentoring program – Student 2 Student [®] (S2S [™]) – supports military and veteran-connected children dealing with moving from one school to the next. Student-led and adult guided, S2S programs in schools bring civilian and military kids together to welcome new students, support academic excellence, and ease transitions. Sessions can be tailored for new or established S2S teams.
For Parents	A community event for parents and their children recognizes the sacrifices military-connected children face and addresses their unique needs – all while raising awareness of local community supports and resources. MCEC empowers parents to be their child’s best advocate, encourages and strengthens parent-child engagement, and equips parents with the resources needed to navigate the challenges associated with a military lifestyle.

Your Summit provides the training and resources your schools and community need to support education goals and overall well-being for military-connected children. It can be tough to transition to a new school, but welcoming environments foster student success. Each 360 Summit is a 1 to 2-day event, tailored to meet the specific needs of your community.
